

ERROR

ERROR

The large center circle represents the core truths held in common by all historic Protestant denominations

Smaller outer Circles represent different historic expressions of core truths within different Protestant denominations. Notice each circle overlaps and is connected with the core

Reformed

Doctrine & Purity
Objective Word of God
Preached

Global

World Missions
Indigenous leadership

Rejection of the superiority of one
christian culture over another

Evangelical

Personal Conversion
Reaching the Masses
"seeker sensitive"

-Final Authority of Scripture-

-3 Ecumenical Creeds-

Apostle's Creed
Nicene Creed
Athanasian Creed

-Sacraments-

Water Baptism/Lord's Supper

CORE TRUTHS

-Leadership/Discipline-

Bishops, Presbytery, Congregational. etc...

-5 Solas of Reformation-

Grace Alone (Sola Gratia)
Faith Alone (Sola Fide)
Christ Alone (Solus Christus)
Scripture Alone (Sola Scriptura)
To the Glory of God Alone (Soli Deo Gloria)

Catholic

Connection to historic
Church & worship
Sacramental life of the Church
Christ over Culture

Liberal

Outreach
Arts, Music, Literature

Christ in Culture

Charismatic

Ministry of the Holy Spirit in practice
Subjective Word of God experienced

Arrows connecting the circles represent the balance created by acknowledging the contribution of all other circles

Outside the red lines represent the error of viewing your circle as ONLY true expression of Christianity, ignoring & excluding all other circles. When the edge of the circle falls outside the line, the poison of error gets injected into your view, even entering the core through it if you're not careful

ERROR

ERROR

ERROR

ERROR

ERROR